INTRODUCTION:
OLLI at the University of Nevada, Reno is excited to offer online programs to help members meet and learn during our time of physical distancing. Our November programs are hosted on OLLI’s Zoom account: a web-based software that you can download onto your computer, phone or tablet. You do not need to create an account to use this application. Just go to https://zoom.us to get it for your device. The Zoom link for each program will be provided in OLLI Weekly’s program listings. If you are not receiving the OLLI Weekly emails, please notify the office at olli@unr.edu.

HOW TO USE THIS CATALOG:
This month's programs are listed in three sections.
• Multi-session Programs meeting several times this month. These programs will be listed by the day of the week.
• Single Programs are listed in chronological order, by date and then by time.
“IG” after a program title indicates an Interest Group/ongoing class that meets throughout the year.
PRQ after a program title indicates advanced pre-registration is required to participate in this program. Specific pre-registration instructions will be just below the program description.

For Outdoor Activities, visit https://ollireno.com/outdoor.
All programs start promptly at the time specified.

MULTI-SESSION PROGRAMS:

Mondays:

Tawdry Tales of Our First Ladies
Meets on Mondays, Nov. 9, 16 at 10 a.m. AND Tuesdays, Nov. 10, 17 at Noon
Presenter: Pam Watson
Historical gossip is fun. Enjoy this humorous four-session look at some of our First Ladies. We will start with Michelle Obama and proceed backward in time. I bet you didn’t know one of these gals committed vehicular manslaughter, but … privilege is privilege.

French 2 — Conversation IG
Meets weekly on Nov. 2, 9, 16, 23, 30 at Noon
Presenter: Cora Robey, Ph.D., OLLI member
This class is for students who have some previous knowledge of French and would like to review and build on that knowledge. We will practice dialogues written to help travelers and those who love France and its cultural traditions. Students also will have plenty of opportunities to talk in French about their experiences and interests. For more information, contact Cora Robey at corarobey@sbcglobal.net.

Chair Yoga
Meets weekly on Nov. 2, 9, 16, 23 at 2 p.m.
Presenter: Diane Dunn, MFA, yoga instructor
Are you uncomfortable getting up and down from the floor? Do you sit most of the day in a chair at work or home and need a break to stretch out those muscles and clear your mind? This class is designed to be accessible for many people, yet it also can be challenging. It is gentle yoga for the whole person.

Warm Hats for Cool Heads IG
Meets on Nov. 2, 16 at 2 p.m.
Facilitator: Leslie Davis, OLLI member
Knit and/or crochet hats and scarves for Reno’s homeless and needy. Share patterns, techniques and inspiration while satisfying our need to create and our desire to support the community. Experience the glow of gratification by providing a thing of beauty and comfort to a fellow human in need. Bring your own needles/hooks.
Tuesdays:

Shakespeare on Film
Meets on Nov. 3, 10, 17 at 10 a.m.
Presenter: Eric Rasmussen, Ph.D., chair, Department of Philosophy, UNR, OLLI member
Let’s explore the fascinating intersections and differences of these film adaptations of Shakespeare’s plays.
Session 1 (Nov. 3): Much Ado About Nothing: as directed by Kenneth Branagh in 1993 and Joss Whedon in 2012
Session 2 (Nov. 10): Hamlet: as directed by Kenneth Branagh in 1996 and starring David Tennant in 2009
Session 3 (Nov. 17): Twelfth Night: as directed by Trevor Nunn in 1998 and starring Mark Rylance in 2013

Tawdry Tales of our First Ladies
(see Mondays for description)
Meets on Tuesdays, Nov. 10, 17 at Noon

Ukulele 2 — Intermediate IG
Meets weekly on Nov. 3, 10, 17, 24 at noon
Presenter: William Papa, ukulele instructor
Intermediate ukulele is for those familiar with the instrument and who feel comfortable reading music. If you have already taken the beginning ukulele class, this intermediate class will continue your ukulele adventure. For more information, email baldrica@charter.net with “OLLI Ukulele 2” in the subject line.

Ukulele 1 — Beginners IG
Meets weekly on Nov. 3, 10, 17, 24 at 2 p.m.
Presenter: William Papa, ukulele instructor
Ever wanted to play the ukulele? Learn the correct way to hold the instrument and two chords for playing multiple songs. For more information, email baldrica@charter.net with “OLLI Ukulele 1” in the subject line.

Cracker Barrel IG
Meets weekly on Nov. 3, 10, 17, 24 at 2 p.m.
Facilitator: LaMerne Kozlowski, OLLI member
Ongoing discussions of current affairs of municipal, state, national and international interest modeled on the old-time, free-wheeling exchange of opinions by those who desire to be heard among their peers. Subjects will vary based on the interests of the participants. For more information, contact LaMerne Kozlowski at lamernekozlowski@att.net or (775) 358-1746.

Wednesdays:

Reading Poetry Together IG
Meets on Nov. 4, 18 at 2 p.m.
Facilitators: Tom Wolf and OLLI members
Join OLLI poetry lovers to explore insights and pleasures in response to poetry. Group members will share poems that are meaningful to them. For more information, email Tom Wolf at tewolf1960@gmail.com with “Reading Poetry” in the subject line.

Thursdays:

Richard the Third: Historical Fact vs. Fiction
Meets on Nov. 5, 12, 19 at 10 a.m.
Presenter: Lara Hansen, Ph.D., co-editor of the New Variorum Edition of Richard the Third
King of England until his death in 1485, King Richard III was the last king of the Plantagenet dynasty. His defeat and death at the Battle of Bosworth Field, the last decisive battle of the Wars of the Roses, marked the end of the Middle Ages in England.
Session 1 (Nov. 5): Shakespeare’s Richard III: synopsis, characters, themes, use of soliloquies
Session 2 (Nov. 12): Richard III in Performance: Al Pacino, Antony Sher, Ian McKellen, Benedict Cumberbatch
Session 3 (Nov. 19): Richard III Historical Fact and Fiction: Shakespeare’s sources for Richard vs. the historical Richard, recent findings and discoveries.

Reading Great Literature IG
Meets on Nov. 5, 19 at 10 a.m.
Facilitator: Susan Nielsen, OLLI member
Read and discuss selections from The Norton Anthology of World Literature Third Edition, Volumes A, B, C and D, E, F, available in paperback in two distinct sets from Amazon or used booksellers. Readings are selected by the group each semester. Together we explore the big ideas and issues of the readings in a historical and contemporary context. For more information, contact Susan Nielsen at (775) 881-8070 or susancosmicdance@gmail.com.
Fridays:

Ancient Greece

Meets on Nov. 6, 13, 20 at 10 a.m.

Presenter: Phillip Boardman, Ph.D., professor emeritus of English, UNR, OLLI member

Session 1 (Nov. 6): The Aegean World and its cultures: At Sea with Odysseus. Perhaps the greatest adventure of all time: Homer’s epic (and comic) story of how Odysseus came home from the Trojan War. Recommended reading (start now): Homer’s Odyssey (especially Robert Fagles’ translation in the Penguin Classics)

Session 2 (Nov. 13): The Drama of Greek Religion: Religious ideas among the Greeks and the source of drama in religious festivals. Understand why theater was so important to the Greeks. Recommended reading: Sophocles’ Antigone (especially Robert Fagles’ translation, available in Penguin Classic: Three Theban Plays)

Session 3 (Nov. 20): Athens and Ideas: The Debate of Plato and Aristotle. The Greeks loved ideas, especially new-fangled ones. Explore the troubled period of the late fifth century BCE, when ideas were at their most fruitful — and dangerous — and imagine a debate which may never have taken place, but somehow never ends.

French 3 — Advanced IG

Meets weekly on Nov. 6, 13, 20 at Noon

Presenter: Arlette Lessig, OLLI member

This French class is for students fluent enough to exchange ideas comfortably with others in a relaxed, conversational setting. Some new vocabulary will be introduced on topics of interest to the students. For more information, contact Arlette Lessig at arlettebiche@yahoo.com.

SINGLE PROGRAMS:

Monday, Nov. 2

10 a.m.

Healthy Communities — It Takes More than an Apple a Day!

Presenter: Michael Lollich, M.S., former CEO of Carson Medical Group, OLLI member

The relative health of the United States population ranks poorly compared to that of many other nations. The United States life expectancy rates have declined for the past several years. We will review the framework of social determinants of health and explore the relative health status of states and communities. Particular attention will be directed toward health metrics for the state of Nevada (where available).

Tuesday, Nov. 3

10 a.m.

Global Change and a Long-Term Record of Butterflies in California

Presenter: Matthew Forister, Ph.D., professor, Department of Biology, UNR

California’s rich butterfly fauna is affected by the many facets of global change, including habitat destruction and climate change. A multi-decadal study of butterflies across an elevational transect reveals both surprising resilience and the potential for loss of populations and species. Results from Northern California will be discussed in the light of studies of butterflies and global change from other parts of the world.

Wednesday, Nov. 4

Noon

Advancing the Science: The Latest in Alzheimer’s and Dementia Research

Presenters: Claire Day, MSW, chief program officer and Denise Hund, MSW, family care associate, Alzheimer’s Association of Northern California and Northern Nevada

This class provides a review of Alzheimer’s and dementia science, including early detection and diagnosis and some of the latest clinical trials, treatment and lifestyle interventions. Learn what we can all do today to decrease our risk of developing dementia.

2 p.m.

OLLI Travelers IG

Facilitator: Judi Whiting, OLLI member

Lawrie Kirkham takes us through three Canadian provinces and six U.S. states to enjoy the splendor of autumn colors. We’ll start in historic Halifax for an exploration of the Canadian Maritimes and then head to Boston to tour New England.

Thursday, Nov. 5

2 p.m.

Fourth National Climate Assessment for the Great Basin

Presenter: Stephanie McAfee, Ph.D., Nevada state climatologist and associate professor, Department of Geography, UNR

Learn about recent climate changes over the Great Basin and look at possible future climate changes outlined in the National Climate Assessment.
Friday, Nov. 6

2 p.m.
Gossip and Dramatic Monologues
Presenter: Cheryl Cardoza, Ph.D., professor of English, TMCC
Explore the ways that gossip is used in the construction of the poetic form of the dramatic monologue. Poets discussed will include Robert Browning and Elizabeth Barrett Browning, Tennyson, Eliot, H.D., and Elizabeth Bishop.

Monday, Nov. 9

Noon
Mystery Books IG: Dark Corners by Ruth Rendell
Facilitator: Kenn Rohrs, OLLI member
Join fellow mystery buffs to discuss mysteries of all types — from cozies to hard-boiled crime fiction. See http://ollirenomysterybg.blogspot.com for more information.

Tuesday, Nov. 10

10 a.m.
Facilitator: Kenn Rohrs, OLLI member
Discuss books with topics of wildlife, ecology and the natural world and our place in it. Explore the literature of landscape, place, natural history and the environment. See http://ollirenonatbooks.blogspot.com for more information.

Noon
Election Results: Votes and Consequences — President and Congress
Presenters: Richard Siegel, Ph.D., professor emeritus of political science, UNR, OLLI member; and Jeremy Gelman, Ph.D., assistant professor, Department of Political Science, UNR
Two political scientists review the more and less obvious results of the November election in Nevada and nationwide. They will explore various factors that determined the outcomes and the predictable impacts of the results concerning power in Washington and particular domestic and foreign policies. How do journalists and analysts agree and differ on these matters?

Thursday, Nov. 12

10 a.m.
Sport Fishing: Elitist Anglers PRQ
Presenter: William A. Douglass, Ph.D., professor emeritus of Basque studies, UNR
Elitist anglers search for exotic quarry. Their travels include good guides, reasonable accommodations, plentiful fish and a memorable week of recreation likely experienced in a remote underdeveloped, indigenous territory. There is a dichotomy between “sport fishing” and overpopulation of our planet, threats to global warming and preservation, allocation and exploitation of scarce resources.
Pre-registration recommended: Please email douglass@unr.edu in advance to get the reading assignment required for class participation.

Noon
Truths Behind Voice and Gender
Presenter: Valerie Fridland, Ph.D., professor, Department of English, UNR
Pitchmen and creaky women: areas of language now most talked about are differences between how men and women talk. We are exceptionally good at recognizing the gender of a voice, even with just auditory information — recognizing, for instance, whether male or female. Since we often make strong judgments based on voice characteristics alone, let’s explore our ideas about gender and voice from a scientific standpoint.

Noon
American Theatre Moves into the 20th Century, Part 1
Presenter: Ward Haarbauer, Ph.D., professor emeritus of theatre, University of Alabama at Birmingham
Art, Money, Technology and, well, Racism: In the 19th century, the American theatre discovers that it can make its own art, it can make money at it, it can build theatres as well as anybody and not all men are created equal.

2 p.m.
Big Questions IG
Facilitators: Larry Marshall and Debbie Bartley, OLLI members
This is a challenging and engaging book discussion group for individuals seeking new insights into the big questions of our lives. Past areas of inquiry have been science, religion, philosophy, history, politics and economics. Group members select, read and then discuss a book for several sessions. For more information, contact Larry Marshall at olli.big.questions@gmail.com.
Friday, Nov. 13

10 a.m.

Espionage Books IG: Transcription by Kate Atkinson

Facilitator: Kenn Rohrs, OLLI member
Join other readers to discuss spy novels and discover new authors and plot twists. See ollirenoebgebg.blogspot.com for more information.

Noon

American Theatre Moves into the 20th Century, Part 2

Presenter: Ward Haarbauer, Ph.D., professor emeritus of theatre, University of Alabama at Birmingham
Eugene O’Neill: All of the 20th Century in a Single Mind: An impassioned, brilliant and flawed playwright shows America the range of what it could do on the stage, writing in styles coming out of Europe and inventing his own. America doesn’t always care.

Noon

Our Fathers’ Omaha Beach Experiences

Presenters: William Dasher, M.S., consulting engineer and Barbara Leusing, OLLI member
Ben Dasher was an Omaha Beach survivor of the D-Day invasion. To put a human face on the months leading up to and following the invasion, William Dasher will provide details about his father’s experiences, observations about war and some lasting lessons. This presentation also will include experiences of Barbara Leusing’s father, Elio Raugi.

Monday, Nov. 16

Noon
Reno Now and Then
Presenter: Neal Cobb, local historian and author, OLLI member
Join local historian Neal Cobb for a walk back in time. Featuring exquisite vintage photographs accompanied by colorful stories, this program celebrates the visual history of Reno and Sparks, comparing the present to a bygone era.

Tuesday, Nov. 17

2 p.m.

The Mormon Battalion of 1846: Who Were They?

Presenter: Jim Bonar, M.Ed., OLLI member
A historical overview of the group of Mormons that President Polk recruited in 1846 to assist in the conquest of California by Gen. Kearny. Why was the battalion formed, what was its purpose and what happened with this historically unknown event?

Wednesday, Nov. 18

Noon
Regional Emergency Medical Services Authority (REMSA)
Presenter: Adam Heinz, executive director of Integrated Health, REMSA
Since 1986, REMSA has provided nationally recognized ground and air ambulance service across northern Nevada and northeastern California regions. REMSA provides residents and visitors with 911 medical dispatch, response and transport, interfacility transport, disaster preparedness, special events coverage, search and rescue, tactical medical support and public education.
Wednesday, Nov. 18 (Cont.)

2 p.m. AND Tuesday, Nov. 24 at 10 a.m.
Photographing the Exploration and Settlement of the American West, 1865-1900

Presenter: Don Fowler, Ph.D., professor emeritus of anthropology, UNR, OLLI member
Photographers J.K. Hillers, T. O’Sullivan, W.H. Jackson and A.J. Russell made hundreds of images of the exploration and settlement of the American West and development of the transcontinental railroad between 1865 and 1900 using the cumbersome, time-consuming processes of wet-plate photography. They also made small wet-plate negatives, which, when developed, produced a 3-D image when viewed through stereo-opticon viewers that were wildly popular from the 1850s to around 1900.

Thursday, Nov. 19

Noon
Let’s Talk Trash: Zero Waste Lifestyle

Presenter: Kim Rios, community educator, Keep Truckee Meadows Beautiful
Did you know our community sends about 4,000 tons of trash to the landfill every day during the winter? That’s more than 700 elephants! When we throw something away, does it really go away? Sustainability means conserving natural resources and minimizing human impact on the environment by creating less waste. Learn how to reduce the waste that goes to the landfill, prevent litter and illegal dumping, and make informed choices about what you buy.

Friday, Nov. 20

2 p.m.
Movie Discussion: Monty Python and the Holy Grail (1975)

Facilitator: Robin Holabird, OLLI member
Watch the movie in advance on your own (available on Netflix and Amazon) and then come together for a post-viewing discussion.

Tuesday, Nov. 24

10 a.m.
Photographing Western Exploration, Part 2

(see Nov. 18 for description)

10 a.m.
Retirement Outlook for Women

Presenter: William Palmer III, investment counselor
Just reading the word “retirement” may raise a mix of emotional responses for you — both excitement and anxiety. Learn about retirement income strategies, including perspectives around Social Security and making your retirement savings last; how to prepare for the unexpected, including market risks; and the impact of rising costs. This program focuses on challenges women face when outliving their spouse or having longer life spans.

OLLI Outdoor Activities:
Please check ollireno.com/outdoor for weekly information for all activities. The health and safety precautions are on the website. All who are interested in any of the activities should sign up for the mailing list. All weekly activities require participants to register in advance. Although we welcome members who are new to OLLI outdoor activities, we do request, because of COVID-19 concerns, you sign up only for those activities that are well within your current level of fitness. We are delighted to offer our full panoply of activities while keeping everyone safe and socially distanced.
